For example, in the title piece, what an ordinary stick in the hand can become—a royal scepter, pen, magic wand, drumstick—is limited only by its holder's creativity. Pham's evocative artwork heightens the imagination's importance in play, with her digitally colored pencil-and-ink renderings so finely textured that they radiate a warmth as arresting as Ezra Jack Keats'.

The Stick Concept can be used in packaged plays in numerous ways, most notably via "Stick-Draw" and "Read Screen." In Stick-Draw, receivers run the Stick Concept while the offensive line blocks for a running back draw. The Quarterback makes a quick post-snap decision, usually based off of the box defender closest to the Stick route.
