In the first sentence, "Open plan living areas spill onto a deck," the word spill does not take on the meaning of a liquid running out. Instead, it means flow (as in flow of space).With this meaning, it makes sense to say that open plan living areas spill upon a deck.

On to vs. Onto - Grammar and Punctuation

Purpose for saying something. When you decide to speak, make sure you do it with purpose. Have a reason for saying what you are going to say, and don't stray from that. The more you stick to your purpose, the shorter your conversation will be, and the more likely it is that the listener will remember what was said.
