In Sarah's Words. People are always interested to learn where a story comes from, and I'm often asked where I get the ideas for my books. The truth is, sometimes I don't even know: rather than just one big moment, it's often a lot of little random thoughts, scribbled notes on scraps of paper and backs of receipts, that make up a novel.

— Sarah Dessen, Just Listen “This is the problem with dealing with someone who is actually a good listener. They don’t jump in on your sentences, saving you from actually finishing them, or talk over you, allowing what you do manage to get out to be lost or altered in transit. Instead, they wait, so you have to keep going.”
